Second Announcement

22nd Meeting of the European Association for Forensic Entomology (EAFE)

Keele University, Staffordshire, United Kingdom

23rd - 25th June 2026

Welcome

On behalf of Keele University and the School of Chemical and Physical Sciences, we are pleased to invite you to the 22nd Meeting of the European Association for Forensic Entomology (EAFE), which will be held at Keele University, United Kingdom, on 23–25 June 2026.

Alongside the main conference, an optional workshop on Cuticular Hydrocarbon (CHC) extraction and analysis will be offered on Tuesday 23rd June and Friday 26th June 2026.

Programme Overview

The conference will begin with a welcome reception on the evening of 23rd June 2026 and will conclude with a social dinner on the evening of 25th June 2026.

An optional workshop on the analysis of cuticular hydrocarbons (CHC) using GC-MS and IR will take place before and after the conference. The workshop will begin on 23rd June with compound extraction. The extracted samples will be run on the GC-MS during the conference, and the workshop will conclude on 26th June with a data analysis session.

Participation in the workshop is free of charge.

Visa Details

The information below is from the UK government website and explains what is needed to enter the United Kingdom.

An Electronic Travel Authorisation (ETA) lets you travel to the UK for tourism, visiting family or certain other reasons for up to 6 months.

An ETA costs £16. Apply for an ETA.

An ETA does not guarantee entry to the UK.

Who needs an ETA

Most visitors travelling to the UK will need either an ETA or a visa, depending on:

- your nationality
- the purpose of your visit

In most cases, visitors from Europe, the USA, Australia, Canada and certain other countries will need an ETA rather than a visa.

Please check the official UK government guidance to confirm whether you require an ETA or a visa before travelling.

You do not need an ETA if you have:

- a British or Irish passport or,
- permission to live, work or study in the UK

Please visit the UK Government guidance website to find out more.
